This Sunday's readings give us some important clues on how to balance the practice of our faith with the demands of life in the 21st century.

In the second reading, Saint Paul reminds us to "serve one another through love." Love is the calling of every Christian. It makes everything we do pleasing to God. By adding a little love, we can take whatever we're doing and make it an opportunity to serve Jesus. When we offer our thoughts, words, and actions up to God in love, then the demands of job and family no longer get in the way of our life of faith, but actually help us to grow closer to God and others. They become opportunities for prayer as we draw on the power of his Spirit to enable us to love as he does.

Cemetery Devotions with Mass will take place in the Parish this Sunday, 26th June 2022.

Kilbride	after the 10.00 am Mass.
Loughsallagh	5.00 pm
Old St Peter's	6.00 pm
Rooske	3.00 pm.

The field adjacent to the new cemetery on the Dunboyne side will be open for parking.

World Meeting of Families: The 10th World Meeting of Families is taking place this week from 22 - 26 June in Rome on the theme, Family love: a vocation and a path to holiness. The delegation from Ireland includes family members led by the President of the Bishops' Conference, Archbishop Eamon Martin of Armagh, and the chair of the Council for Marriage & Family, Bishop Denis Nulty of Kildare & Leighlin.

Ireland hosted the 9th World Meeting of Families in August 2018 which was attended by Pope Francis, and tens of thousands of people from home and abroad.

This year's World Meeting of Families has been adapted to suit the post-pandemic world and therefore will be smaller in terms of the numbers with just 2,000 delegates gathered in Rome. But, it is still possible for families across Ireland to be part of the event by joining in online as we became accustomed to doing during the pandemic. All of the gatherings that are part of this year's World Meeting will be live-streamed. The Irish delegation have also taken the prayers and intentions of Irish families with them to Rome and asked that our delegation in Rome be remembered in prayer in our parishes at home, especially this coming weekend..

Family Prayer

We give you thanks Lord God who has blessed us with life and love.

You have given us the gift of the Family.
help us to nurture and protect to guide and to love each other.

Through the intercession of the Holy Family
Jesus, Mary and Joseph, protect us.

Give us wisdom and courage,
joy and faithfulness

in responding to our special vocation
as a Christian family,

so that we may help each other to grow in grace and love to the Glory of God.

AMEN
