“The truth of the human person-male and female- is not a cultural construction, but a divine gift. We must resist ideologies that confuse our children and distort God’s plan. The family, as designed by God, is the sanctuary of life and love. No one has the authority to redefine this foundation”

Pope Leo XIV

Parish Mission:

The Parish will hold a mission beginning Saturday 22nd November to Saturday 29th November. It will be hosted by the Redemptorists Fathers.

We are seeking parents who would like to have their baby baptised at the opening ceremony on Sunday 23rd November at 7:30pm.

Charity takes time: Wisdom of the heart means showing solidarity with our brothers and sisters while not judging them. Charity takes time. Time to care for the sick and time to visit them. Time to be at their side like Job’s friends: “And they sat with him on the ground seven day and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that his suffering was very great” (Job 2:13). Yet Job’s friends harboured a judgement against him: they thought that Job’s misfortune was a punishment from God for his sins. True charity is a sharing which does not judge, which does not demand the conversion of others; it is free of that false humility, which, deep down, seeks praise and is self-satisfied about whatever good it does.

Ceili Catholic Community in Kilbeggan is launching a School of Missionary Discipleship from September 2025 for young people aged 18-30. It has been "tailor-made" for University and College Students since it will only involve one weekend a month in-person with study materials given to read at home in-between each weekend. No assignments or exams will be given. They are also offering each weekend free of charge to encourage participation. Their vision is to encourage university students - the leaders of tomorrow - an opportunity to meet, share and grow in the faith and be trained to become "missionary disciples" in their life and career. - To register for more information Email: school@ceilicommunity.net or text mobile 087 9789150
