St. Joseph's Statue is being repaired at present.

Above him, there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews" (Luke 23:38). These words would spark the poignant exchange between Jesus and the two thieves. One is unwilling to consider a need for saving, mocking this innocent man suffering beside him. In contrast, the other receives the promise of paradise through a humble, contrite acknowledgment of his sins and the recognition and proclamation of Jesus as Messiah. "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom" (Luke 23:42). And Jesus demonstrates God's great mercy as He promises the good thief, on that very day, entrance into the kingdom.

While we understand the kingdom of God to be heaven, this quote reminds us — in God's mysterious ways, it also dwells among us — present in every Tabernacle of the world in the Eucharist. The totality of Jesus remains fully present among us in the guise of a little white host, having come into his kingdom through the salvific work upon the Cross.

While everyone's idea of heaven on earth is very different, none of us can begin to imagine the heaven that awaits us.

The count down for WORLD YOUTH DAY 2023 1ST-6TH AUGUST, which will take place in Lisbon, Portugal, has begun. It is time to save the date and prepare for the journey. Pope Francis has registered and invites those aged 18-35 to gather from all parts of the world in joyful celebration of the faith and identity we share in Jesus Christ, Saviour of the World. We look at the example of the young Mary of Nazareth and seek her to intercede and guide all young people. “MARY AROSE AND WENT WITH HASTE” LK. 1:39 Follow www.dioceseofmeath.ie & Facebook: Meath Diocese WYD.
